14 ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS; THE CITY OF

Case No.: 1:23-cv-01471-JLT-SKO

ORDER GRANTING IN PART THE PARTIES' STIPULATION TO CONTINUE
TRIAL AND TRIAL-RELATED
DEADLINES

(Doc. 43)

16 The Court is in receipt of the parties' joint stipulation to amend the scheduling order that 17 seeks an extension of the case schedule to allow parties to "schedule depositions of named
18 individual parties" and to continue the trial. (Doc. 43.)

19 In light of the parties' representations, the Court finds good cause to ORDER that the case
20 schedule be modified to enlarge the Non-Expert Discovery Deadline (as to the depositions of the 21 named individual parties only). However, the Court finds that the parties have not established good 22 cause to continue the trial, especially in light of the previous two trial continuances. (See Docs. 38, 23 42.)

24 Additionally, in light of the parties' representation that there is "agreement that a Mediation
25 and/or Settlement Conference would be beneficial in this matter," the Court will also set a pre-
26 settlement and a settlement conference.¹

27
28 ¹An Order Setting a Settlement Conference will be forthcoming.

Based on the foregoing, the Court finds good cause to ORDER that the following dates set forth in the March 19, 2024, August 16, 2024, and September 30, 2024 Scheduling Orders, (Docs. 26, 38, 42), be VACATED, CONTINUED, and that a pre-settlement conference and a settlement conference be SET as follows:
